Community Health Center, Stookton, Kansas

Stookton, Kansas, a county seat town of over 2,000 population serving a trade area of approximately twice that size has no facilities for emergency medical treatment or for the delivery of babies.

Thus was born the idea of a Health Center which would provide office for two doctors plus emergency operation room, delivery room, recovery rooms and nursery as well as a Laboratory and X-ray.

The VFW Auxiliary Post 8873 donated $200.00 to this project. We made the money from our fair dances.

VFW TO PROMOTE COMMUNITY SERVICE

Veterans of Foreign War Posts and their Ladies Auxiliaries in thousands of cities, towns and neighborhoods throughout the country promote community service programs for the benefit of all citizens.

By "community service" the VFW means to:
1. Improve a city, town or neighborhood;
2. Assist needy families;
3. Expand recreational and educational opportunities for everyone;
4. Assist schools, churches and other organizations;
5. Provide special benefits for youth; and,
6. Give direct aid to needy individuals whether or not they are VFW members.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars declares that democracy and true Americanism begin at home. Therefore, VFW members strive to make their own communities better places in which to live. That is one of the best means of strengthening national unity.
The Stockton girls softball team, sponsored by the V.F.W. Auxiliary and coached by Farrell McCauley and Kensil Keeten, will meet Palco at Stockton on Friday, July 3, at 8:00 p.m., in their first home game of the season, and their second scheduled game. The girls and their managers and sponsors hope the community will see fit to encourage the team by their support and presence at the games.

Last Tuesday the girls met Osborne there and went down to defeat 10-7. Battery for Osborne was Iva Wirth, pitcher, and Lucille Romine, catcher. Battery for Stockton was: Treva Miller, pitcher, and Beverly Winters, catcher.

WANT MAGAZINES

The Veterans hospitals have sent out an urgent appeal to people all over the country for reading material and the VFW Auxiliary members in Stockton are going to supervise the distribution of this material. Mrs. Ella Hock has kindly volunteered to let the magazines and books be left at her home. They want magazines, comic books and pocket books, especially the mysteries and westerns. The hospitals are also in need of books to replenish their libraries. Any kind of readable books—fiction and non-fiction—will be welcome. People who hesitate to destroy good reading material should welcome this opportunity to put their old books and magazines to good use.
